

DISCIPLESHIP AND MISSIONS: ADVANCING THE GOSPEL TOGETHER

◀ CLAUDEAN BOATMAN

Colo. WMU Exec. Director and National WMU President

Jesus clearly commissioned believers to share the Gospel and make disciples. This session will overview resources local churches can use to develop disciples who are intentionally missional. Explore ways to learn what God is doing in multiple contexts, hear directly from missionaries, pray for them, and give to make the Gospel known. Finally, discover how God can use your local church to share Jesus in international contexts.

MAIN POINT

Discover practical ways to help disciples pray, learn, give, and go. Explore ministry opportunities and training to share Jesus in your community and beyond.

- 1 Jesus has called each believer to be an on-mission disciple. Intentional teaching can help believers obey the Great Commission.
- 2 Prayer is critical to Kingdom expansion. IMB workers connected to Colorado and church planters in Colorado depend on prayers of Colorado Baptists. Find ways to pray specifically for them.
- 3 Resources are available that bring Kingdom work to life with stories and activities for every age level. Utilize them to inform prayers and support.
- 4 Churches can partner with missionaries from Colorado and be directly involved in their work.
