

MINISTRY FINANCE BEST PRACTICES

◀ MATT TROMBLEY
President
Rocky Mountain Foundation

The Rocky Mountain Foundation is providing a breakout to help ministries be financially healthier. Leveraging our experience and the common issues we find during our Ministry Finance Health Reviews, we will facilitate an interactive educational discussion. All are welcome, whether a volunteer, trustee, elder, finance staff, or others involved in church financial matters.

MAIN POINT

To provide an interactive forum to discuss best practices and pertinent education on the most common errors ministries make with their finances.

- 1 Understand the guidelines for Donations and Payroll for Churches/Ministries
- 2 Be able to identify the best practices to avoid the top mistakes ministries make in the areas of Donations and Payroll.
- 3 Have a safe and interactive forum to ask questions, and know how to contact resources at RMF for additional questions.
