

Emmanuel Baptist Church is located in Meeker, Colorado. Meeker is along the famed White River near the base of the iconic Flat Tops Wilderness. It is a small ranching town with cold weather and great people. The church has two weekly services, Wednesday night prayer meeting, Sunday morning bible study and worship service. The members of Emmanuel have a heart for their community. They are a family friendly church that values traditional church. The man that God is leading to Emmanuel Meeker will need to be bi-vocational until the church grows to a point that they can provide for a fulltime pastor.

Job Description

Qualifications: The pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church must be a man who meets the qualifications that Paul outlined in 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and in Titus 1:7-9. In addition, the pastor must agree to operate under the Constitution and Bylaws of Emmanuel Baptist Church Principle Function. The pastor is responsible for proclaiming the Gospel of Christ and encouraging the church body to do so as well, for guiding the spiritual development of the congregation, for providing pastoral care in meeting the needs of persons in the church and community and for providing leadership as overseer of the church. Emmanuel Baptist Church values the importance of reaching out to the community with the life changing power of the Gospel.

Accountability: The pastor is accountable first to the Lord, but also to the church.

Responsibilities:

1. Prepare for the worship service in coordination with the music ministry.
2. Prepare and deliver biblically based sermons to train and equip the membership for service outside the church walls, not neglecting the need to ensure that unbelievers understand their need for salvation.
3. Work with the membership to become effective witnesses for Christ, including a caring ministry for both church members and the community.
4. Visit, as needed, those who may be ill, homebound, or need spiritual assistance.
5. Work with the leadership and bible study teachers as a leadership group to coordinate, train and equip people for involvement in ministry.
6. Conduct Lord's Supper as outlined in our bylaws. Baptize believers as needed.
7. Conduct counseling as needed, perform weddings as needed, conduct funeral services as needed.
8. Cooperate with association, state, and denominational leaders in matters of mutual concern.
9. Communicate information about missions offering opportunities and other denominational items.
10. Work with the Leadership to maintain structure and communication with the church.

Compensation: $2,400-$3,000 (Depending on Experience) + Nice Parsonage.

The parsonage in comparison to rent in the area would be valued at $2,500/month. The church will also pay the utilities.
